Dear Hoa,

I am having a great time here in England. I am staying with an English family. They are very help and hospitable. On weekdays, I can catch a bus to a language center. At weekend, I help to do housework and do gardening. You said that you find English difficult to learn and you were the worst at listening and speaking. I see you hardly improve these skills without speaking and listening to native voice everyday. Thus, you should practice listening to English tapes, CDs and speak English so often with your friends or your teacher. My English is quite well now, I wish you were here with me in England. I would introduce you to my new English friends. They are very nice. You asked me send you some English video films, did you? I promise I will send you some next month.

Give my regards to your parents and friends!

Best wishes,

Mozart, who was born on January 27, 1756 in the Austrian city of Salzburg, was neither the first nor the last child prodigy, but he was certainly the greatest. He was born into a moderately prosperous family where his unmatched musical genius made itself known extremely early.

Mozart began leaning to play harpsichord at three and his earliest known work was composed in 1761 when he was five, the age at which he also first appeared in public.

From the age of six, when his father took him on the first foreign tour, Mozart toured the courts and musical centers of Austria, Germany, France, England, Holland, Switzerland and Italy. It has been calculated that Mozart spent almost a third of his short life - he died at the age of thirty five – travelling.

As Mozart matured, he continued to tour and give concerts. Mozart also wrote a lot of operas. His first opera, Mitridate, Re di Ponto, was performed in Milan when he was 14, and it was the first of many successes in the theatre.
